dreams really do come true

at The Center for Rural Development

Whether you need a wedding planner or a “day of” coordinator...The Center is here to assist. We help brides, grooms and their families get through the most important, and often the most stressful time of their life, by allowing them to enjoy the wedding planning process, but especially their wedding day. We offer as little, or as much guidance, to make the process easier through our inside connections and years of event planning experience. We will ensure that you won't have to worry that something has been over-looked or will slip through the cracks. We treat each wedding as if it were our own...our goal is for you to be a guest at your own wedding.

Our consultant packages range from all-inclusive event planning to hourly services as required. Choose the services that you need when you book your special day with us.
